GIUSEPPE VERMILIO

La sicurezza marittima nella società del rischio

Maritime Safety in Risk Society

Safety and sustainable development involve risk regulation that is implemented in different areas of criminal, administrative, transport and navigation sectors according to values, principles and governance models common to international, European and national legislation.

The regulation of risk in maritime law is the archetype of risk legislation.